

To become a confident and resilient learner

Talk about my ideas in full sentences using higher level vocabulary

To form lasting friendships, taking turns and solving conflicts

To be inquisitive and ask questions

To feel safe and happy

To be active and healthy

To apply phonics knowledge in reading and writing

EYFS – What We Want For Our Children

To choose to read a book and develop a love of reading

To have good oral hygiene

To love learning

To reach their full potential

To have secure number knowledge

To learn both inside and outside in an inspiring environment.

To live by the Christian values and ethos

To be creative and imaginative

To develop a love of nature